Unframed & Uncorked Art Sale Promises Wine, Art and Great Deals Friday, Feb. 3, 2011

HAVERFORD, PA (January 6, 2012)—Robert Mondavi said, “Fine wine is an art” and Main Line Art Center will have plenty of both at this year’s Unframed & Uncorked Art Sale! Grab a glass of wine (or two!) from Barefoot Wine and Bubbly and browse through photographs, paintings, drawings, glass arts, jewelry, ceramics and more on Friday, Feb. 3 from 6-9 pm.

Back for its fifth year, Unframed & Uncorked Art Sale is a fun and informal one-night-only sale of affordable unframed art and fine crafts. Also not to be missed is First Friday Main Line’s successful Foodapalooza, which conveniently takes place the same night at at the Haverford Estates behind the Art Center from 6-8:30 pm.

In addition to giving artists a venue to share their talents, Unframed and Uncorked Art Sale is a great opportunity for the community to support and purchase artwork local artists. Main Line Art Center does not take a commission on artwork sold during the sale so all proceeds go directly to the artists. Admission to the Unframed & Uncorked Art Sale is free. Cash or check book are recommended, as many artists will not be able to accept credit cards.

During the event, the Art Center will hold a drawing for a ticket to the Spring Soiree, a 1930s themed party celebrating the Art Center’s 75th anniversary, featuring swing music, themed cocktails and a silent auction. The Spring Soiree will be held at Main Line Art Center on April 14 from 6:30-9 pm and will be set against the backdrop of the Out of the Attic History Exhibition. Tickets will go on sale in February and are $75.

Main Line Art Center is currently seeking artists to be a part of this highly successful and anticipated Unframed & Uncorked Art Sale. For information about purchasing bin, table and wall space ($30-$65), contact Stean Wilborn at swilborn@mainlineart.org or visit the Art Center’s website at www.mainlineart.org. Unframed & Uncorked Art Sale offers a wonderful opportunity to show in a well-known art institution and sell work commission-free. Space is limited to apply early.
